Village life

Quiet and peaceful Marden offers a relaxed pace of life

Marden may be small but it is perfectly situated to enjoy a country lifestyle, surrounded by stunning landscapes and charming villages to explore. The area is defined by its history of apple orchards and its proximity to the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, a medieval woodland with grasslands, open heath and coastline, home to wildlife small and large.

There is plenty to explore by walking, cycling or visiting medieval castles, old world steam railways and historic manor houses. Before returning home to Russet Vale, rest up at one of two local pubs, The Unicorn or the West End Tavern, for pub grub and local brews. The Old Post Office Coffee House is family-run, with locally produced cakes and sandwiches on offer to eat in or takeaway, great for early morning commutes or adding to a picnic in the summer.

Marden itself also has a library, farm shop, pharmacy, health centre, several takeaway restaurants, a cricket and hockey club, as well as a youth football club to support. Local schools rated Good in the area include Marden Primary School and St Margaret's School and the Outstanding Goudhurst and Kilndown Church of England Primary School is less than a 15 minute drive from Russet Vale.
