Introducing Shared

Take the next step. Own in Mill Hill.

Introducing Ridgeway Views, a collection of 1, 2 and 3 bedroom Shared Ownership apartments from L&Q, one of London's leading residential developers.

Through L&Q Shared Ownership, Ridgeway Views opens the door to owning your own home where you want to live, in a prime location in north west London.

One of London's original villages is still here, and the area has lost little of its green appeal. Visibly rooted in its twin histories of 18th-century hamlet and vibrant Victorian suburb, today's Mill Hill has a genuine homegrown community. It offers places to explore, amenities to enjoy, hidden delights to discover, and good transport links.

Shared Ownership with L&Q at Ridgeway Views gives you the opportunity to settle in an area where you really want to be.

A home where you want to live

Ridgeway Views is located within the Mill Hill Conservation Area, a designated area with a unique character driven by special architectural or historic interest. It has an elevated position on The Ridgeway, an ancient highway and the highest point of Mill Hill.

Our vision is to make quality living accessible through Shared Ownership. Light and airy apartments, each with a private balcony or terrace. Well-designed buildings in materials that complement the natural environment, and buildings that sit happily in the landscape. An abundance of space, peace, 360-degree views and gardens for everyone to enjoy.

Why choose Shared Ownership?

Shared Ownership makes the seemingly impossible possible. It allows you to buy a home, in an affordable way, in the area you know and love. It will help you fulfil your dream of owning your first home, with far lower up-front costs than both private sale and Help to Buy.

For first-time buyers who feel priced out of the market, Shared Ownership gives you a vital step on the ladder and all the benefits that being an owner-occupier brings. These include the security of home ownership, the pleasure of creating a home from scratch, and the chance to enjoy what's truly yours.

Shared Ownership is also a stepping stone to full ownership. It allows you to buy a share of your home – anything between 25% and 75%. You pay a mortgage on the share you own, and rent the remaining share at a subsidised rate.

The beauty of Shared Ownership is its low upfront fees and long-term scalability. To get on the property ladder, you can put down as little as a 5% deposit on the share you buy.

Over time, you can increase your stake in the property and 'staircase up' to a larger share, and eventually full ownership, whenever it best suits you.

So what's the difference between Shared Ownership and Help to Buy equity loans, the other key initiative for first-time buyers?

The deposit and mortgage needed to get on the property ladder through Shared Ownership are lower than for Help to Buy.

With a Help to Buy equity loan, the government loans residents up to 40% of the total value of the property. You will not pay interest on this loan for the first 5 years. This means you need to fund the remaining 60% of the property's value, which requires a bigger mortgage, a larger deposit (5% of the total property price), and a correspondingly higher income.

Shared Ownership vs Help To Buy

Taking one £400,000 home as an example, here's how deposits and mortgages compare under both schemes.

Shared Ownership: 25% share of a £400,000 home	Help To Buy: 5% deposit on a £400,000 home
25% share = £100,000	Government loan @ 40% = £160,000
Mortgage = £95,000	Mortgage = £220,000
5% deposit = £5,000	5% deposit = £20,000

Meet Sean and Laura

After four years of dating, Sean and Laura made the decision to live together - they found an ideal flat to rent in Ealing and moved in straight away. Sean says:

"We were very happy in our rental flat. We'd been living there for about a year and then one day the landlord told us he was selling the property. It came as a real surprise to us, and we just weren't sure what to do next."

Sean and Laura have just bought a 25% share of one bedroom apartment with a balcony through L&Q's Shared Ownership scheme at Acton Gardens.

Sean explains why they decided to buy through the affordable home ownership scheme:

"We knew that we didn't want to keep jumping around rentals, and decided we wanted to buy somewhere. We knew we couldn't afford to buy on the open market, so thought we would look into whether we could qualify for Shared Ownership."

"My brother and sister have both bought their homes through Shared Ownership and it's worked really well for them – my sister has even staircased to 100%, so she now owns the whole property. It was seeing them both so happy after buying through the scheme that really sold it to us."

Sean continues: "We registered on the Share to Buy website and soon came across L&Q's homes at Acton Gardens. We knew that we wanted to stay in Ealing, so we registered straight away. The process was really straightforward – we got an email about a week or so before the homes launched and easily organised a viewing for the launch weekend. We went to look around and really liked the whole development, so we put our name down straightaway."

"The eligibility process was nice and easy too – we'd both been living in Ealing for a year and Laura worked in Ealing at the time so we met all the criteria. It was only three months between our first viewing and actually getting the keys!"

After loving their year renting in nearby Ealing, Sean and Laura wanted to make sure that Acton was right for them:

"Before we registered, we did a lot of research into the area to make sure it was a good fit for us. We love being just a ten minute walk from Chiswick – we go there every couple of weekends and it's such a lovely place to be near."

Sean says: "We're just five minutes from Acton Town station – Laura works in central now which is really convenient on the Piccadilly Line. I teach at a school in Paddington and cycle along the canal to and from work every day!"

Happily settled in Acton, Sean and Laura are enjoying life in their new home.

"We won't be moving anywhere anytime soon! We might consider staircasing but right now it's too soon to say. Either way, we're definitely happy staying here for a good few years."

Things to do, places to go

Shared Ownership at Ridgeway Views gives you the chance to own in a much-loved part of north London. Your new home is perfectly placed for everything Mill Hill has to offer.

Enjoy the ease of nearby stations, and the rare joy of boarding an empty train. Walk into the village for a pint or some good wine in one of its three lovely pubs. Tick off all your shopping list, from everyday groceries to urban luxuries, on the Broadway and not very far beyond.

The area is packed with great little cafés and good quality restaurants. It has walks, rides and views to enjoy, every day of the week. Here are a few of the things we like.

Bluebelles, Mill Hill Broadway

Bluebelles on the Broadway: the essential pre-commute coffee stop. Loved for its customisable brews (hotter, stronger), oat milk lattes and gluten-free cakes.

Platform

Mill Hill East: first stop on this branch of the Tube. Everyone looks forward to getting a seat.

Mill Hill Broadway high street

The Broadway, for the midweek half-hour shop. Everything you need for everyday living, plus the vital inessentials (food treats, nail bars, barbers etc).

The Arch North climbing wall

Actual rock climbers hit The Arch North to build their power, finesse and confidence. Everyone else comes for a hard workout.

Five-a-side football

Saturday morning footie at Powerleague Mill Hill. Book a pitch and take your mates, or join a league for weekly games.

Adam & Eve pub

Saturday late afternoon. Time to join the locals for a pint at Adam & Eve in the village.

Mill Hill Broadway is a community hub with loads of amenities, and the jumping off point to London, St.Albans and beyond.

Great days out

Venture out a little further and you'll find all kinds of places to explore.

Mill Hill is a springboard into Hertfordshire and its grand country houses, quintessentially English villages, and towns – like St Albans and Welwyn – with a surprising Roman past.

North London's suburbs have their surprises too. Who would have thought that the Harry Potter film sets are intact down to the last prop, and open to tour in Watford? Or that Hendon has hangars full of fighter jets?

These places and many more are all a short drive, Tube or train trip away. Go and explore, and have some great days out.

Indulge your inner wizard on the Harry Potter tour at Warner Bros Studio in Watford. The Great Hall is so real it's eerie.

Visit Hatfield House, a lavish Jacobean house, park and the childhood home of Elizabeth I. Stay over at Lawn House in the grounds, a super-glam B&B.

St Albans, AKA the old Roman city of Verulamium, has ruins to explore and a dizzy cathedral tower to climb. Great café culture too.

Just up from St Albans is Wheathampstead. This chocolate-box village on the River Lea is perfect for a country ramble. Follow its heritage trails.

Nip down to Highgate for a walk on Hampstead Heath and tea at Kenwood House. Have a drink at The Flask in Highgate Village before you Tube back.

There's always something happening at Ally Pally (Alexandra Palace): world-class music, a fantastically random selection of events and the best fireworks ever.

The Royal Air Force Museum is in Hendon's old aerodrome. There are fighter jets in the hangars, and flight simulators you can take off in.

The Dollis Valley Greenwalk goes from Mill Hill to Hampstead Garden Suburb, snaking between Barnet and the Green Belt. The full walk is 10 miles long.

The magnificent St. Albans Cathedral is a short train ride away.

Get anywhere and everywhere

Enjoy fast access into the city and out to the country. Mill Hill is well connected by Tube, rail and road. And everything's easy to get to from Ridgeway Views.

The area is in Zone 4 and is served by underground and overground stations. From Mill Hill East, Northern Line trains take you into the West End in 20 minutes and the City in 30. Or board the ThamesLink at Mill Hill Broadway: it's two stops and 24 minutes to Farringdon.

The M1 and M25 are minutes away, gateways to all of the UK. And Luton or Heathrow airports can be reached in around half an hour.

Meet Jonathan

After renting in London for six years, 29 year old Jonathan had decided he wanted to buy a place of his own.

“Renting is great, and I loved my house share in Hammersmith, but I kept feeling like I needed to do something more sensible with my money. Paying rent every month didn’t seem like the best use of my income, and I knew that home ownership was a solid investment.”

Jonathan, a music teacher in Hammersmith, considered buying his first home on the open market but soon realised that it was out of budget.

“I would definitely recommend Shared Ownership. It’s a really good scheme if you’re looking to get on the housing ladder, and fantastic if you’re buying on your own. It’s also a great alternative way of investing in a property, if that’s something you want to do.”

He says: “I briefly looked into buying on the open market but pretty quickly realised that there was just no way I could afford somewhere on my own. London house prices are crazy. I thought that I could maybe afford to buy if I was prepared to move out to the suburbs, but I like living in central London. All of my friends are in London and I wanted to stay just a tube or bus ride away from them.”

Not knowing much about alternative home ownership options, Jonathan began looking at other ways to get onto the property ladder.

“A friend had recently bought a home through L&Q’s Shared Ownership scheme in Elephant & Castle, and she was the one that told me all about it. She was really happy with her new home so suggested I had a look. I was really keen to stay in west London and be close to work, so I did a search online and found L&Q’s Acton Gardens.”

“The thing that really drew me to Acton Gardens was how flexible the eligibility criteria was – I’d seen a couple of other schemes from different developers that had very strict requirements about where you had to live and work, but I qualified for Acton despite the fact that I didn’t live or work in Ealing.”

“I went for a viewing and really liked the flat, so I just thought – why not! It was a really easy process and such a quick turnaround; I looked around the show home on Saturday, chose which apartments I was interested in on Monday, and within under two weeks I’d heard that I had met the eligibility criteria and secured an apartment!”

“The sales team were helpful – they explained the whole process and talked me through everything step by step. I found the mortgage interview and application a bit daunting – it’s nerve-wracking having to break down all of your finances and discuss how much money you have each month – but thankfully L&Q’s team were there to advise and help me through.”

Now moved in, Jonathan is busy settling in to his new home and exploring the local area further.

“Location was really the main thing that sold me - I love west London! I like that Acton is close to Chiswick and all the lovely things that Chiswick has to offer, so there is plenty to do nearby. Acton is also really well-connected – I’m a music teacher so I spend a lot of my time in central London going to concerts, opera and the theatre. Crossrail is also launching next year, so I knew that the area would be a sensible investment.”

“I would definitely recommend Shared Ownership. It’s a really good scheme if you’re looking to get on the housing ladder, and fantastic if you’re buying on your own. It’s also a great alternative way of investing in a property, if that’s something you want to do.”
