Lyde Green is a flourishing Bristol community with a strong village feel close to glorious rural landscapes. It attracts families looking for a great area to raise kids; young people wanting access to both city and country life; and those planning to make the most of their later years.

SET BETWEEN CITY AND COUNTRY

Lyde Green sits to the north east of Bristol, next to Emersons Green, on the edge of beautiful, open countryside. It's just a 30-minute drive to Bristol and Bath city centres, with easy access to the M4 and ring road. And yet there's a large, ancient common on the doorstep and you can be driving through lush green fields in less than five minutes.

For the way you live today

Guinness Homes at Lyde Green gives you an opportunity to enjoy the best of both worlds. You can live in a modern, new build home and have a relaxed rural lifestyle. You can keep city amenities and work opportunities on hand and escape to the countryside. You can own your own home in a desirable, growing community and potentially save money compared to renting privately.

A more affordable way to buy your home

We have just 27 properties available at Lyde Green and they're for sale on a shared ownership basis, which makes buying your own home more affordable. With a mix of 24 apartments and 3 houses, Lyde Green features 1, 2- & 3-bedroom homes, offering space for buying alone, with a partner or as a family. Each home comes with parking, and four of our apartments have garages, offering extra space for storage, hobbies and homeworking, as well as your car.

Enjoy a rural life with cosmopolitan connections

Clifton, Bristol

BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

Green and pleasant land

Bristol is a thriving city, known for its excellent shopping, strong economy, diverse food scene, cultural attractions and open-minded outlook. It's also a very green city, with more than 400 parks and gardens to enjoy. In Lyde Green, the opportunities to get close to nature and recharge in tranquil spaces are wide and plentiful.

An ancient common sits next door to this development and is laced with brooks, grassland, woodland and marshland. Wander tree-lined paths to the Lyde Green play area; follow cycle routes to the Folly pub for a waterside home-cooked lunch; or test your skills at the BMX track.

To get further afield on two wheels, you can follow the attractive Bristol and Bath railway path. It takes around 45 minutes to cycle into Bristol city centre and just over an hour to Bath. And with open countryside less than a mile and a half from home, rural adventures are a mere stroll away.

4 Lyde Green Emersons Green, Bristol

Getting active is easy in Lyde Green

The airy new Lyde Green Community Centre and café is a welcoming hub, hosting everything from yoga classes to martial arts training and baby massage lessons. For team sports, there's Lyde Green playing fields. And at Emersons Green there's a David Lloyd leisure club and Sport Education Swim School.

You can join classes, hit the treadmill, book courts and more at Kingswood Leisure Centre, a 10-minute drive away. And within a 7-minute drive, you can perfect your swing at Windmill Leisure Golf & Activity Centre and cast off at Windmill Fishery.

Stay local...

You have the convenience of a Sainsbury's Local at Lyde Green. And just over half a mile away is Emersons Green Retail Park, where you'll find Sainsbury's, Lidl, Boots, Argos and more, plus family-friendly restaurants, cafés and takeaways.

Emersons Green also offers other handy amenities such as a library, hairdressers, veterinary practice and children's play centre. And you're just a 12-minute drive from Longwell Green, which has favourite stores such as M&S and Next, plus a Vue Cinema and Hollywood Bowl. The Mall at Cribbs Causeway is also within easy reach, a 22-minute drive away. Home to over 150 stores, including John Lewis, it also boasts several popular eateries - from Carluccio's to Nando's.

...or head to the city

And, of course, it's only a short journey to the big-city bright lights of either Bristol or Bath for a plethora of places to shop, eat, drink and be entertained. Whether you're looking for the best coffee in Bristol or fancy a day walking the cobbled historic streets of Bath - you'll never be bored again.

STEEPED IN HISTORY

A magnificent part of the country

Within an hour's drive of Lyde Green, there are no less than five areas of outstanding natural beauty: the Cotswolds, the Wye Valley, the Mendip Hills, Cranborne Chase and the North Wessex Downs. Whether you prefer hiking, climbing, cycling or picnicking, you can do it in mesmerising surroundings.

Be by the water

There are several beaches within easy reach of Lyde Green, including Burnham-on-Sea, which offers wide swathes of sand and plenty of places to paddle and swim. Within an hour, you can be in Cardiff, enjoying lunch and the many attractions in the bay. And the River Severn provides waterside fun too. You can walk or cycle along The Severn Way or go horse riding at the Severn Valley Country Park. If you like to get on the water, there's paddle boarding, canoeing and kayaking.

Your time, however you please

Dyrham Park's 17th century house and garden is just a 14-minute drive from Lyde Green, giving you a chance to step back in time amidst stunning surroundings. And, in approximately 30 minutes, you could be taking in all the adventure & entertainment that Westonbirt Arboretum has to offer.

Prefer café culture? Within around half an hour's drive are pretty villages and towns such as Castle Combe and Chippenham. Not to mention Bath's luxurious spas and its exhilarating racecourse. And if you fancy a day shopping in the capital, it's only around an hour and a quarter by train from Bristol Parkway to London Paddington.

AT THE HEART OF FAMILY LIFE

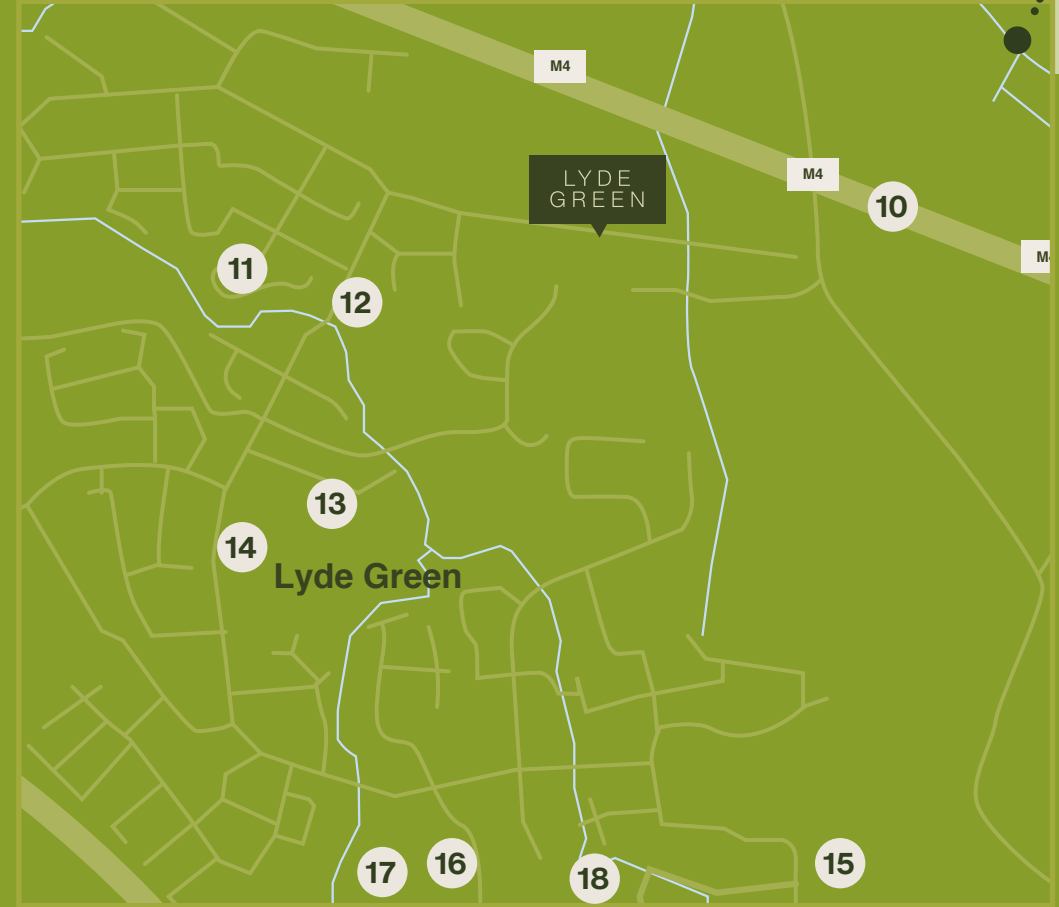

Essentials on hand

Lyde Green has good quality healthcare amenities close by, including a dentist, doctor's surgery and hospital – all within around a five-minute drive at Emersons Green. There's a nursery and pre-school at Lyde Green, plus a primary school with a good Ofsted rating, with a new secondary school that is due to open there in 2022. Within 1.5 miles, there's also Black Horse Primary School and Emersons Green Primary School, which have good Ofsted ratings too.

Fast travel connections

Close to the M4 and A4174, Lyde Green gives you easy access to the city centre and the area's major roads. There's a handy park-and-ride service less than half a mile away with buses running from there and Emersons Green into Bristol and other areas. The Bristol and Bath railway path is a pleasant option for cyclists. And Lyde Green is only a 16-minute drive from Bristol Parkway Railway Station on the main Bristol to Birmingham line. With Bristol Airport within around a 40-minute drive, jetting off abroad is straightforward too.
