Inspiring a generation

In 2012, a legacy was put into motion. Now, residents are placed to take advantage of London's Olympian efforts.

The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park offers you a whole host of activities and amenities, from the park's trails and meadows, through to the public gym at the Copper Box Arena and the sporting events of the London Stadium itself.

Every step of the way, you'll relive the achievements of London's Olympic heroes. Whether your tastes tend more towards lazy strolls through gardens or frenetic Saturdays of football action, Motion's connectivity puts everything the Olympic Park can offer within easy reach.

Stratford - A one stop hop

Thanks to Lea Bridge overground station, Motion is now one stop and six minutes away from the facilities and amenities of Stratford.

In just a four minute cycle ride or a 14 minute stroll, find yourself immersed in East London's go-to retail, cultural, leisure and business hub.

Stop by the famed Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, take in the sights as you slide down the ArcelorMittal Orbit or find the many cultural landmarks throughout the district. You can also treat yourself at Europe's largest shopping mall - with 250 shops, 70 places to dine and a 17 screen cinema, Westfield is an ideal place to indulge in a touch of retail therapy.

From canal-side Italian trattorias and European-inspired champagne bars to traditional British pubs and family restaurants, Stratford's gastro scene perfectly complements Leyton's local offering.

Urban living with a green fringe

Motion's urban location won't detach you from a life lived in green spaces.

After taking your bike from one of our 516 secure cycle storage spaces, the cycle paths put you a short ride away from the pathways, trails and sporting facilities of the Lea Valley, while a little more pedalling takes you south towards Hackney Marshes' famed football pitches. For well-deserved rest and relaxation, head north to Capital Park, or along Orient Way to Leyton Jubilee Park and its community events.

You'll find that London's green spaces are always within easy reach.
