WHERE LIFE IS PURLEY

Would you like to live in one of greater London's most sought-after areas alongside city professionals and families looking for a more relaxed pace? Our homes at Russell Hill Road in Purley are available on a shared ownership basis, so buying in this attractive town is a more affordable possibility for first time-buyers.

We have 12 stylish apartments for sale at Russell Hill Road, including four three-bed homes, three two-bed homes and five one-bed homes. They're all stylishly finished to a high standard and sit on a leafy residential street lined among large, detached family homes.

PERFECTLY PLACED FOR THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS

Purley sits on the southern edge of London where the city meets Surrey. Its close proximity to the capital makes it ideal for commuters - you can be at London Bridge or Victoria station within 40 minutes. And Croydon's popular town centre is just 3.5 miles away. Yet you can be in open green space just a few minutes' walk from home and enjoying areas of outstanding natural beauty within a 30-minute drive.

— FROM CITY TO COUNTRY

Prosperous Purley's location makes it easy to enjoy the buzz of the city and spend time in the countryside. Boasting spacious, well-kept homes, tree-lined avenues, and a thriving high street, it attracts those who want a more laid-back lifestyle, while keeping the capital close at hand.

Croydon is also within easy reach of Purley – around 15 minutes by car. And it's about to undergo an exciting regeneration programme that will make it an even more appealing place for people of all ages to spend their downtime.

A GOOD EDUCATION

For families, there's great educational provision in Purley. This includes Russell Hill Road Day Nursery, The John Fisher School and Woodcote High School, which all have good Ofsted ratings.

FROM STAGE TO RACECOURSE

Croydon's Fairfield Halls is another major venue offering concerts, plays, films and comedy nights. And you can catch the latest blockbusters at the Vue multiplex, which sits alongside Tenpin Bowling on the edge of Croydon.

This area also offers lots of things to see and do within a 30-minute drive – from Chessington World of Adventures, to go-karting at Surbiton Raceway and horseracing at Epsom Downs.

PLACES TO EAT, MEET AND HAVE FUN

Purley offers plenty of eateries around a 10-minute stroll from Russell Hill Road. Whether you prefer the Mediterranean flavours of restaurants such as O Farol or Las Fuentes, the Middle Eastern cuisine of El Sham or the Japanese delicacies of the Zen Lounge. 4 Locos serves great steak and Dan Thai offers deliciously fresh curries. And high-street favourites Pizza Express and Costa Coffee are also in Purley.

There's an even wider variety of bars, cafes and restaurants in Croydon, a 15-minute drive away. Boxpark Croydon brings Shoreditch to Surrey and is one of the largest social and cultural destinations in London. It offers a huge variety of foodie fayre, not to mention a 2000-capacity events space that hosts concerts, screenings, art exhibitions, markets and more.

SHOP LOCAL OR IN THE CITY

In Purley town centre, just a 3-minute cycle from Russell Hill Road, there's a convenient mix of high street retailers, independent stores, beauty salons and banks. There's also a post office and a library. And, for everyday essentials, Tesco Extra, Waitrose, Aldi and Costco are all within a 9-minute drive.

Croydon, less than four miles away, is the nearest major retail hub, and has the Centrale & Whitgift Shopping Centre at its heart. There, you'll find Zara, M&S, House of Fraser and more. On the edge of town is the Valley Park Retail Centre, which is home to Ikea and a range of other stores such as Dunelm, Sports Direct, DFS and Boots.

And, of course, you can be shopping on London's Oxford Street in less than an hour.

GET CLOSE TO NATURE

Purley is conveniently close to woodlands and stunning, open countryside – perfect for family outings, park runs, picnics and dog walking. The expansive Roundshaw Downs are around a 15-minute walk away. And within a 10-minute drive you have the Foxley Wood nature reserve, Oaks Park with its Woodland Craft Centre and Purley Beeches with its tennis courts.

Only a few minutes further afield are Happy Valley Park, Farthing Downs and Kenley Common. And, within a 30-minute drive, you can be exploring the amazing Surrey Hills. Enjoy the sea air? The M23 sweeps you straight to Brighton within an hour.

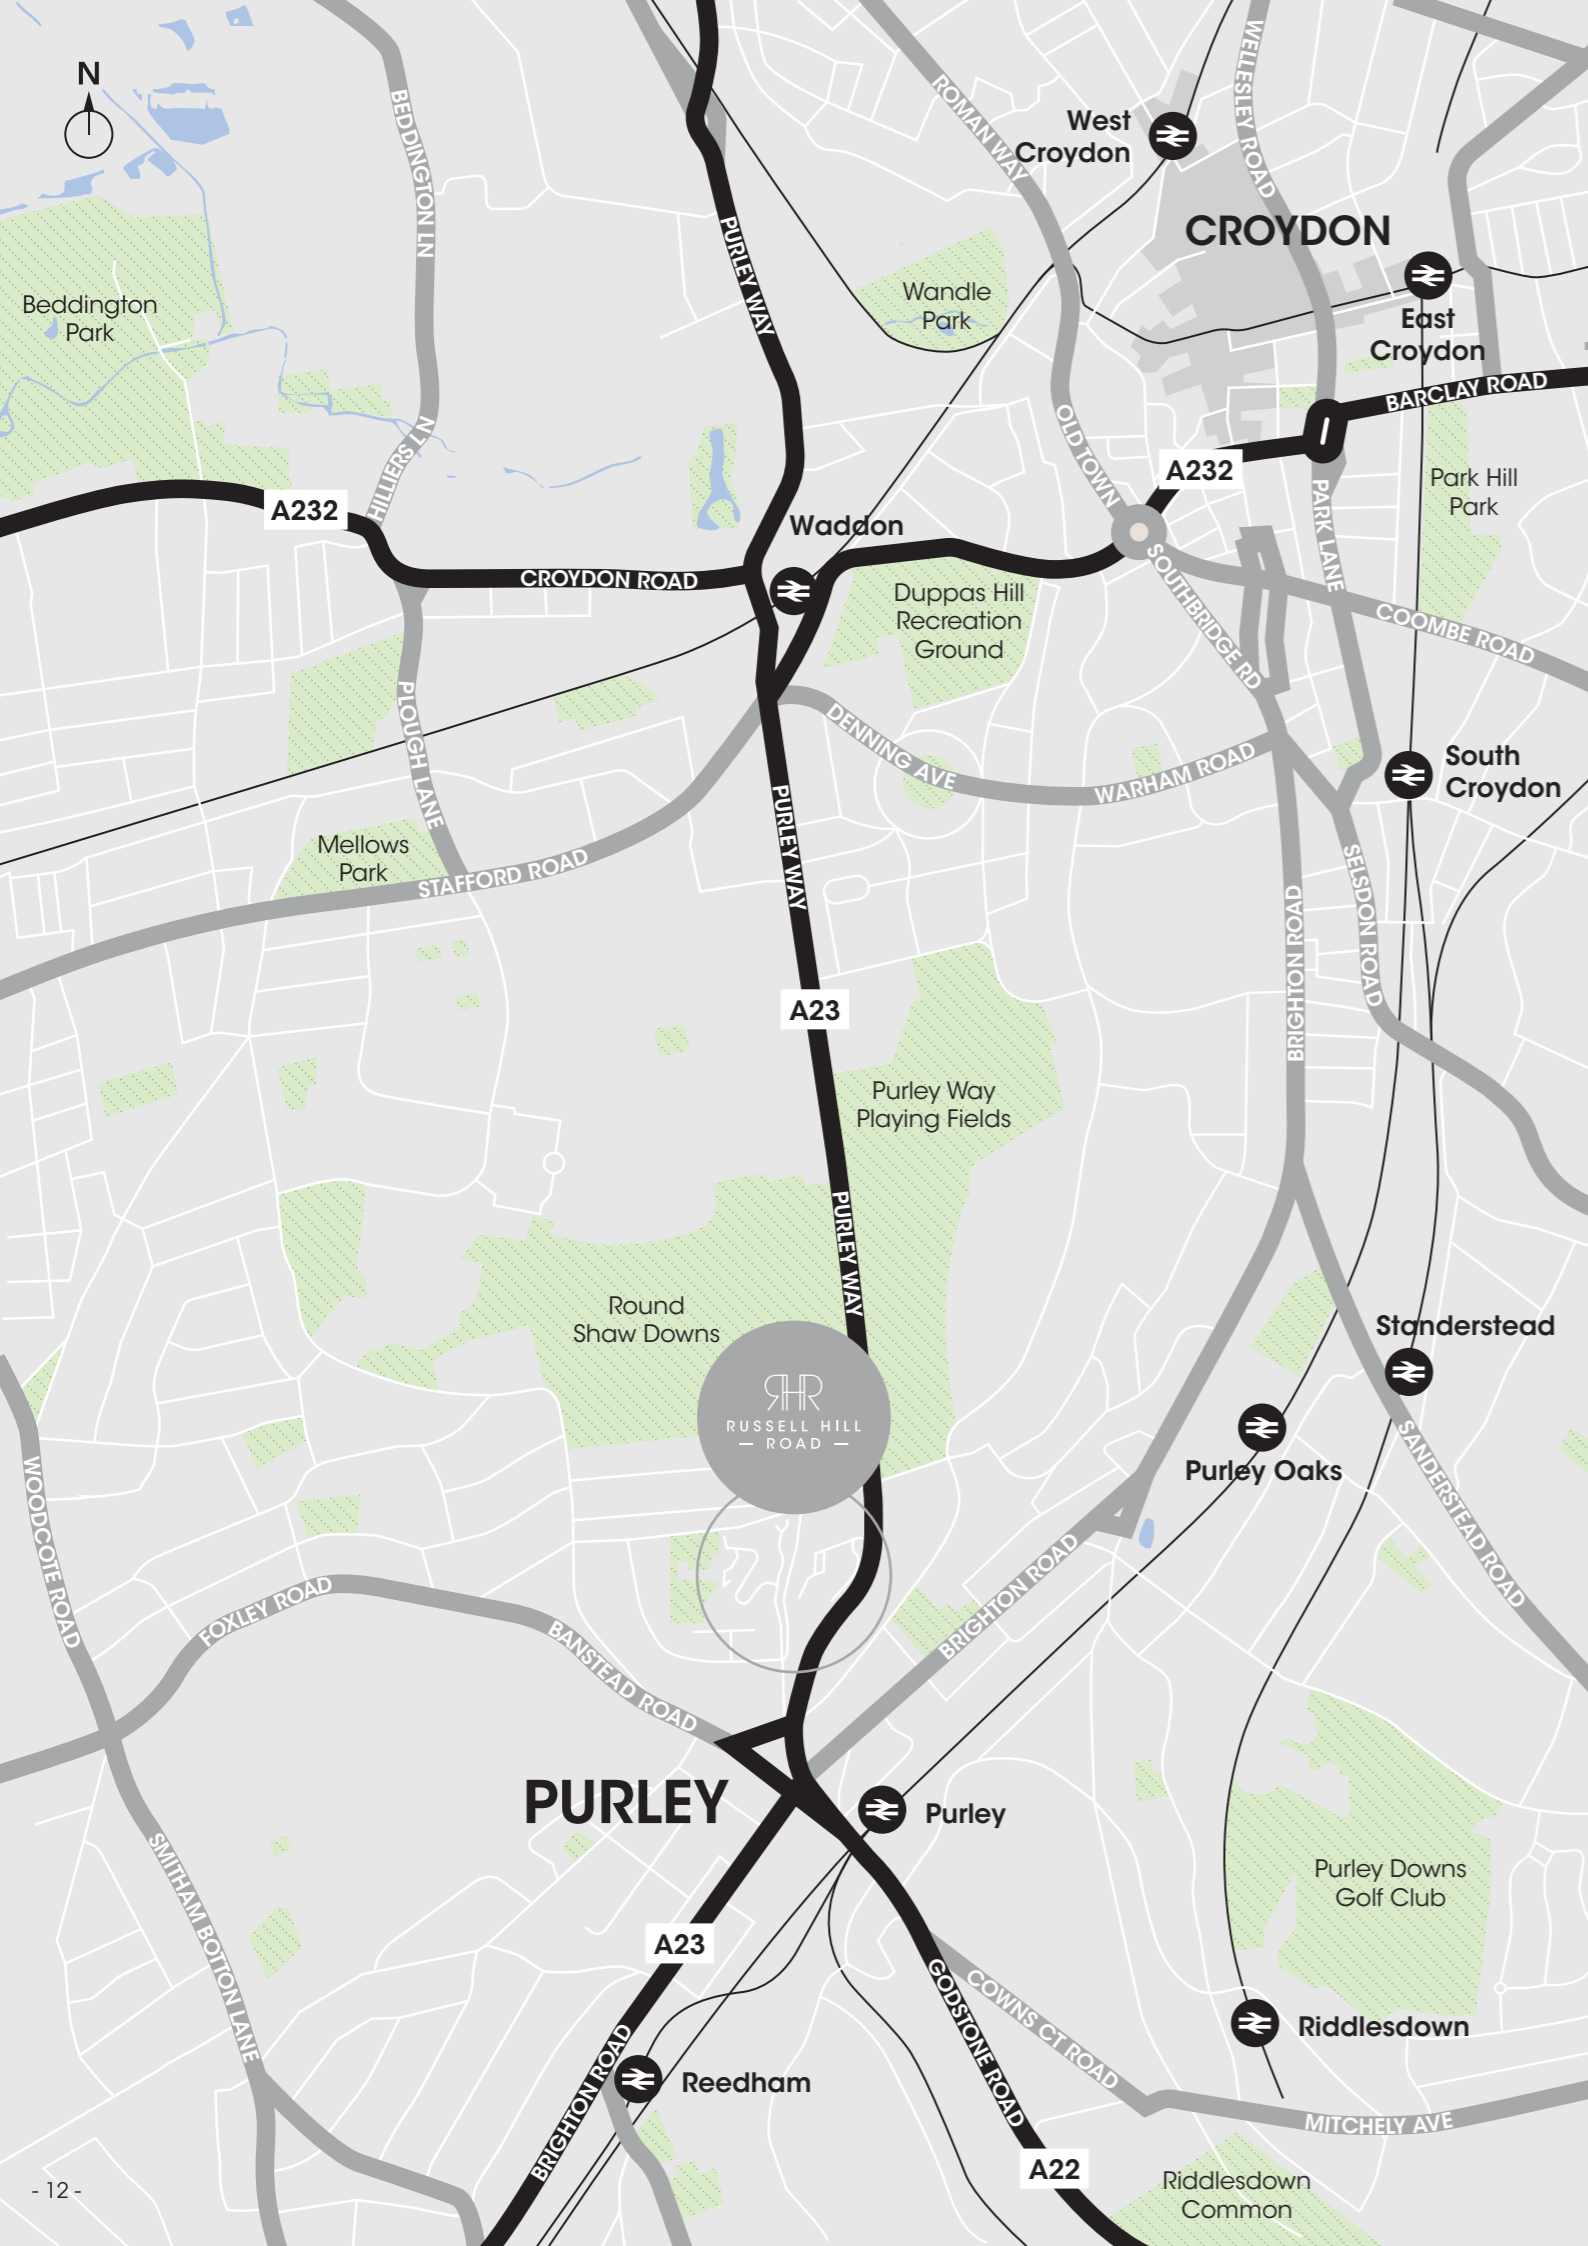

STAY ACTIVE CLOSE TO HOME

Back in Purley, there are plenty of other opportunities to improve your health and wellbeing. Purley Leisure Centre has a gym, swimming pool and classes, and is just a 3-minute cycle from Russell Hill Road. Purley Sports Club, which offers cricket, bowls, hockey, netball, squash, tennis and more, is an 8-minute cycle.

You also have David Lloyd Purley, Sports Direct Fitness and Oxygen Freejumping Trampoline Park within a 9-minute drive. And there are three golf clubs within a 12-minute drive: Purley Downs, Woodcote Park and Coulsdon Manor.

VERY WELL CONNECTED

Purley's excellent traffic links by both road and rail make it ideal for commuters and anyone who wants to enjoy the capital without living among the hustle and bustle.

BY CAR

The A23 takes you up to London and (via the M23) down to Brighton and takes around an hour to each. The M25 is also less than seven miles from Purley.
