GENERAL DESCRIPTION

SHARED OWNERSHIP (Advertised price represents 37% share. Full market value £540,000). This exceptionally-spacious, one-bedroom apartment is on the third floor of a smart, modern development. The property has a twenty-five-foot reception room with spacious kitchen area, featuring integrated appliances, and a dual-aspect living area. A glazed door leads out onto the balcony. There is a generously-sized bedroom with fitted wardrobe plus a bathroom which is not only stylish and high-spec but large enough to include a separate shower cubicle. A pair of storage/utility cupboards have been provided in the entrance hall and the energy-efficiency rating is very good, thanks to well insulated walls, high performance glazing and under floor heating supplied from a communal hot water system. The Bowery Building is in a great location - very close to East Putney Underground Station, just minutes from Putney (mainline) Station and High Street and only a short walk from the Thames. Residents can make use of the concierge, a small communal lounge at mezzanine level, the cycle store and the well-maintained roof terrace.
